Laurie Ailworth mentions the Regatta San Diego-Puerto Vallarta to be a good opportunity to make publicity for Navy League. She will provide more information and will keep in touch with Bill Clark regarding this.

Carol talks about her concern regarding the restrictions in cash deposits in pesos and in US dollars in Mexican Banks. It will be necessary to inform the NL members and public in general to pay or donate in check on the name of Navy League. There is an option in considering asking NL's bank to provide a credit card terminal for and in the Association events to make it easier for the people to make their payments.

Next meeting July 6th, 2010.

A motion was called for to close the meeting; was requested and met by Cal Leavitt and Fred Piontkowski.

Nice Summer for everyone!!
